Consider a part-time job

Working on campus is a great way to help fund personal expenses and reduce the need for loans. Last year, ASU paid our undergraduate student workers $31 million in wages.

How do I apply for aid?

Create your FSA ID

Your Federal Student Aid ID enables you to electronically sign your federal aid documents and log in to your FAFSA if it requires changes. If you use your parent’s tax information on your FAFSA, they must create their own FSA ID in order to sign your FAFSA.

fsaid.ed.gov

Submit your FAFSA

In order to be considered for the most aid, you should complete your FAFSA as early as possible. The FAFSA opens on Oct. 1, 2017, and ASU’s FAFSA priority filing date is Jan. 1, 2018. ASU’s Federal School Code is 001081. Once you submit a FAFSA, monitor your Financial Aid Tracker in My ASU (my.asu.edu/finances) for your next steps.

fafsa.gov

Review your Student Aid Report

You will receive your SAR from the U.S. Department of Education three days to three weeks after you submit your FAFSA. ASU uses it to calculate how much aid you could receive, and how much may be left to cover.

Complete verification (if selected)

If you are selected for financial aid verification, you will be sent an email from ASU notifying you to check your Priority Tasks on My ASU for a current list of requested items.

Receive your Financial Aid Notification

Your FAN will outline your ASU awards. To get your full award, enroll full time (12 credits each semester) — any less and your awards will adjust. Once you receive all of your aid offers, take the cost of each school you’re considering and subtract your aid offer to see how much is left to cover to attend each school. Then decide which is the right fit for you.

Estimate your cost

Use ASU’s Net Price Calculator and enter your financial information to see how much aid you could receive, and how much may be left to cover.
