We're here for you.

Arizona State University supports our military students and families through one-on-one support, military-specific events, and academic and professional assistance. In partnership with the Pat Tillman Veterans Center, ASU is here to help you with your college journey.

Your veteran checklist

ASU is here to assist you in checking off your to-do list prior to attending the university. Your next steps to help you prepare for enrollment are on the next page, but we acknowledge that students' experiences and requirements differ. If you have any questions as you review these tasks, the veterans center is here to help.

Class to consider

ASU offers a veteran-specific introductory course to support veterans' transition to academic life. Both first-year and transfer student veterans from any major are welcome to register.

2. Complete ASU's documents for VA benefits processing.

Processing your submitted documents and forms will take approximately one to two business days. Forms may be completed after meeting with an advisor and registering for your classes. If you are using only Tuition Assistance (not VA benefits), these forms do not apply to you.

3. Determine your residency.

Use ASU's residency navigator to help determine your eligibility for residency.

4. Register for the veterans welcome event.

The veterans welcome event is a seminar-style orientation. It is expected that all incoming graduate and undergraduate student veterans attend the welcome event prior to their first semester at ASU. Hosted by ASU and the Pat Tillman Veterans Center, the veterans welcome event introduces you to valuable benefits information and procedures that will apply each semester that you use your benefits. Spouses and dependent students do not need to attend this event.

If you are a new student, you will receive notifications by mail and email prior to the event so you can RSVP and plan to attend. Events are scheduled before each fall and spring semester. Refreshments are provided and space is limited, so we request that you don't bring guests. We look forward to seeing you there.
