

Your Arizona State University transfer guide

Find your place at ASU

As you choose where to complete your bachelor's degree, you're likely seeking out universities that offer you the most opportunities for growth and future success. I invite you to consider Arizona State University. As a transfer student, you'll gain access to all the resources and opportunities of a research university — professors at the top of their fields making groundbreaking discoveries that you could be a part of, and more than 400 highly ranked degree programs to choose from — all in a global environment with students and faculty from all over the world.

Think of completing your bachelor's degree as an investment in yourself and your future. ASU is a smart decision for a quality education. We offer competitive tuition rates and more than $1 billion in financial aid each year, so you'll get the most for your money during your time here.

ASU has a commitment to our students: we provide a safe, diverse and welcoming environment for you to pursue your education. By transferring to ASU, you're preparing yourself for a lifetime of success no matter what you want to do.

I hope you'll consider joining the Sun Devil family.

Your investment

The value of a college education continues to grow, and earning your bachelor's degree at ASU will prepare you for the next steps in your career.

Learning more leads to earning more

The median annual salary of 25- to 34-year-old college graduates is $23,000 more than those who only graduated from high school, and $15,500 more than those with two-year degrees.

Annual earnings for young adult workers ages 25–34

Your credits

ASU accepts college-level (not remedial) courses in which you have earned a grade of “C” (4.00=“A”) or better from regionally accredited colleges and universities.

Transfer Guide

Take the guesswork out of transferring and find out how your credits apply to your ASU degree by building a course-by-course transfer map with MyPath2ASU™. Track your degree progress, request course evaluations, save course and exam searches, and more.

tcg.asu.edu

Degree requirements

The ASU college of your major determines how transfer courses fulfill your degree requirements. You should review the degree requirements of the program you intend to transfer to in its major map, and talk with an academic advisor about your transfer credits and how they will apply to your degree program. Some ASU majors have higher admission requirements. To find the requirements for your specific program, visit ASU's Degree Search.

degrees.asu.edu

Credit hours

ASU will accept a maximum of 64 semester hours of lower-division credit when transferred from a regionally accredited community, junior or two-year college, with the exception of some special programs. An unlimited number of credit hours will be accepted from four-year institutions.

Your application process

General admission requirements

A transfer applicant is a student who has attended one or more colleges or universities and has completed 12 or more transferable credits post-high school. Students with 11 or fewer transferable credits are considered incoming first-year students. To transfer to ASU, you must meet one of the following requirements:

Students with 12 or more transferable credits must have a minimum 2.50 cumulative GPA. Transfer students with 12–23 transferable credits must also meet first-year student aptitude requirements.

Students who have earned an associate degree from a regionally accredited higher education institution must have a minimum 2.00 cumulative GPA (residents) or 2.50 cumulative GPA (nonresidents).

Rolling admission

ASU evaluates admission applications once received and completed. Completed applications include a submitted transfer admission application, application fee, and official high school (if applicable) and college or university transcripts from all previously attended institutions.

admission.asu.edu/transfer/apply

Your steps to apply

1. Complete an admission application.
2. Activate your ASURITE User ID.
3. Submit your nonrefundable application fee.
4. Request to have your official transcripts sent to ASU.

admission.asu.edu/transfer/apply

Plan your transfer to ASU

Schedule a one-on-one appointment or attend a presentation to connect with your transfer coordinator and get all your admission questions answered.
