- ➔ Indicates an accelerated 4+1 degree program. ASU offers a streamlined path to a master's degree from ASU undergraduate programs, reducing the time it takes to get a master's degree from two years to one year.
- ✕ Indicates a concurrent degree program. ASU offers high-achieving graduate students the opportunity to complete two distinct but complementary graduate degrees at the same time.
- + A two-year program is for applicants who have completed a four-year undergraduate degree in the same discipline as the graduate program. A 3+ program is for applicants with an undergraduate degree in a discipline different than the graduate program.

West campus

ASU's West campus provides one-on-one support and personalized opportunities for students pursuing interdisciplinary arts and sciences, business, education, and health degrees.

Downtown Phoenix campus

Situated in the heart of the fifth-largest city in the U.S., ASU's Downtown Phoenix campus is home to the university's health care, law, journalism and public sector degrees. Students are a short walk or light rail ride away from excellent internships and jobs.

Tempe campus

Tempe campus is in the center of the Sun Devil community and is home to ASU athletics. The bustling, classic campus atmosphere features a broad range of majors including liberal arts and sciences, business, engineering, sustainability, and the arts.

Polytechnic campus

ASU's Polytechnic campus is an oasis in the desert. For students who want to work with their hands, fly planes, or study business, education or communication, this makerspace-style campus will be the perfect fit.

Tucson

The ASU School of Social Work offers a master's degree in social work at its location near downtown Tucson. The School of Social Work prepares students who are committed to social justice and to serving and empowering individuals, families and communities.

Online

ASU Online offers more than 150 online degrees, including top online graduate programs such as business and education.

Mesa City Center

Just opened in 2022, the Mesa City Center — a joint project between the City of Mesa and ASU — houses select academic programs from the Herberger Institute for Design and the Arts, as well as spaces for entrepreneurship and community collaboration.
