

Your Arizona guide to ASU State University

What does it mean to go to the No. 1 school for innovation and global impact?

Arizona State University is a new kind of university, dedicated to innovative ideas and academic excellence to help you get where you want to be in life. At ASU, you are joining a community of scholars from around the world.

- Courses are taught by a student-focused faculty that includes Nobel laureates, Pulitzer Prize winners and Fulbright Scholars.
- Technology-enhanced learning through platforms like Dreamscape Learn focusing on solving the world's greatest challenges.
- Opportunities to work with professors and world-renowned leaders on significant projects that serve as a catalyst for economic, social, cultural and the overall health of the communities we serve.

You'll thrive in ASU's innovation environment, where excellence and inclusion are prioritized, which in turn will help prepare you to thrive in life.

Culture and excellence

Culture at ASU

The ASU community is rich in many cultural, social and global traditions. Through Culture at ASU events and programming, students have many opportunities to engage with their peers in a globally aware context. Culture at ASU promotes identity, inclusion and expression to build a strong community reflective of ASU's charter. Students lead the initiative, collaborating to build intersectional programs that celebrate cultural identities, foster a sense of belonging on campus and help expand the cultural awareness of all. Follow Culture at ASU on social media to learn about heritage celebrations, civility on campus and many cultural events.

Barrett, The Honors College

If you're looking for a higher education experience comparable to the Ivy Leagues, ASU's Barrett, The Honors College might be ideal. Widely regarded as one of the best honors colleges in the U.S., Barrett offers challenging academics, expansive resources, personalized attention and exclusive research opportunities, all at a more modest cost than an Ivy League school. With Barrett on their resume, many graduates go on to excel in high-impact careers or graduate school. While you can join and thrive at Barrett at any time, you'll have the best experience if you begin when you start college, so you're encouraged to apply to Barrett immediately after applying to ASU.

Barrett partners with 100+ employers and professionals in a variety of industries, coordinating opportunities exclusively for honors students such as events, programs and internships. Barrett students have interned at several industry-leading companies including Amazon, Goldman Sachs, ON Semiconductor, State Farm and Intel. Students also have the opportunity to perform future-focused research with distinguished faculty and through special partnerships with organizations like Mayo Clinic and Indian Health Services, and through the Barrett College Fellows Research Program.

We know family is important to your university experience. Watch this video about welcoming new families to ASU.

"Culture is not just a phrase written around campus, but we live it every day as an ASU student. It's beautiful to see the students, faculty and staff who are living by the culture, not just to help their circle of friends, but the larger Sun Devil community and our global community. Networking is the key to everything and it's important to take advantage of all the resources ASU has for you."

"ASU provides opportunities for students to build connections through networking, professional development, leadership and future internship opportunities. My professors and mentors have supported me from the beginning, believed in me and inspired me to be proud of my abilities as an international student. You should be confident that your potential is measured on your academic and professional abilities and that your background is an asset and not something you should be afraid of showing."

A one-size-fits-all experience doesn't really fit anybody

You might be wondering what the typical ASU student experience looks like. In reality, there isn't a typical experience. That's because you're a unique person, so your experience should be your own. Figuring out who you want to be and learning how to get there is a journey that takes time. We offer tools, opportunities and support to help you design an experience that works for you.

What do you want to study?

If you're not sure what to study — maybe because you have lots of interests or maybe because nothing's really calling to you — we have tools to help you narrow down the hundreds of degree options to find something that fits you. Tools such as me3®, an easy-to-use picture quiz that can help you figure out what careers might be good for you and the majors that can get you there.

me3® quiz
asu.edu/me3

People and programs

From exploratory degrees to academic advisors, ASU is here to help you find the major that fits you.

Where do you want to live and learn?

ASU offers four campuses in metro Phoenix, each with its own size and feel, so you can find the learning environment that fits you best.

Campus fit quiz
asu.edu/myfit

What kind of college student will you be?

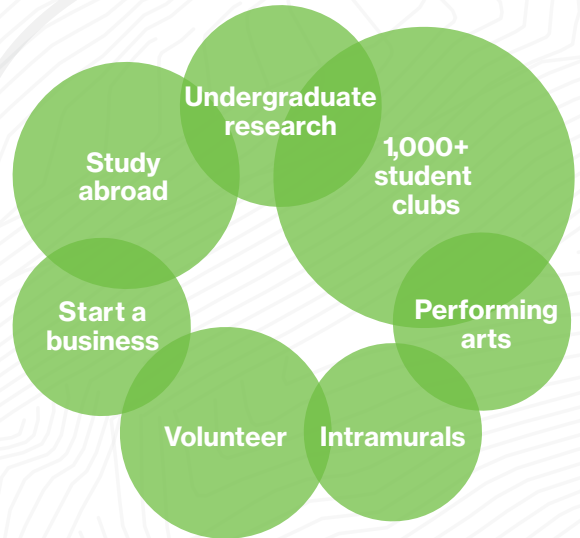

A Deep Diver? A Trailblazer? Something else? To help you start figuring it out, we've designed this quiz to help you connect to opportunities that fit you.

Experience quiz

[asu.edu/
my-experience](https://asu.edu/my-experience)

Who do you want to connect with?

You'll meet lots of people in the ASU community — people who will become your friends and part of your network, and help you navigate obstacles and guide you when things get difficult. These are just a few examples.

What experiences do you want to have?

Picture your ASU experience as a buffet. Add to your plate the things you know you like, pass on the things you don't and maybe try something you've never tried before. Here are a few samplings:

Student clubs. Make instant friends by joining a student club — there are more than 1,000 to choose from.

Study abroad. Gain global awareness by spending between one week and one academic year studying in another country and learning from its culture.

Research. Work alongside a professor on a meaningful research project no matter what your major, and gain a faculty mentor at the same time.

Performing and fine arts. Be part of an arts performance or take fine arts classes to tap into your creative side — even if you aren't an arts major.

Intramurals. Join an intramural sports team at any skill level. Meet new people, get some exercise and have fun.

Entrepreneurship. Receive funding and mentorship to help get your startup or invention off the ground and into the market.

Volunteer. Tutoring, building homes, sorting food or assisting in a hospital are just a few of the many ways you can get involved through Changemaker Central.

ASU and the metro Phoenix area – diverse and innovative communities

Just like ASU, the Phoenix area is a diverse community filled with people from all around the world. And like ASU, Phoenix is a forward-thinking place with innovative ideas constantly being born and nurtured. That's why ASU's campus communities fit so well within the Phoenix community.

National and global locations

ASU's footprint goes far beyond state borders, offering experiences and bold new learning spaces across the U.S. and around the world. That's why ASU is a New American University – a future-focused model of higher education that values inclusion and meets students where they are.

ASU California Center

Los Angeles, CA

- Based in downtown LA, the ASU California Center offer degrees including fashion, film, journalism and other creative disciplines. One of these centers is the Los Angeles home to ASU FIDM, our state-of-the-art fashion school. ASU Local – Los Angeles also has a presence here.
- Fashion, film and 140+ programs through ASU Online

Washington, D.C.

District of Columbia

- ASU's location in the capital of the U.S. offers ASU Local and the Barrett and O'Connor Washington Center, which houses the journalism school's Washington Bureau, the law college's Law and Security program, the Capital Scholars program, and the McCain Institute's Global Leaders program.
- 140+ online degree programs through ASU Local

Global

global.asu.edu

- ASU's presence is felt worldwide through study abroad trips for students who spend time learning in another country, partnerships with universities worldwide and global projects that are helping communities in foreign lands to thrive.

Specialized learning locations

Other learning locations in the metro Phoenix area offer specialized programs near ASU campuses. Students have a home campus but can take classes at locations such as ASU at Mesa City Center or the Health Futures Center, as well as on other ASU campuses.

ASU at Mesa City Center

Mesa, AZ

- ASU at Mesa City Center houses academic programs related to digital and sensory technology, entrepreneurial support, experience design, film production, and immersive media. The facility is fully embedded in Mesa, so student artists and designers thrive within their community. Spaces like the MIX Center enable collaborative and innovative efforts to create immersive media experiences.

Health Futures Center

Phoenix, AZ

- The Health Futures Center, a collaboration between ASU and Mayo Clinic, offers students the chance to participate in world-class medical research and innovation, preparing them to transform the future of health care. The center features a med-tech innovation accelerator, biomedical engineering and informatics research labs, and a future-focused education zone.

Your campus community

Welcome to your new home

At ASU, first-year students, also known as freshmen, live in a residence hall on the campus of their major. ASU's housing options come with many benefits, including:

- Nearby access to classes, professors, libraries and tutoring services.
- Nearby access to the Sun Devil Fitness Complex and dining halls.
- Furnished rooms with Wi-Fi and cable, and nearby laundry facilities.
- Common recreation and study areas, and community kitchens.
- Special programming and events for residence hall community members.

Live with your classmates

If you are a first-year student, you will live in a residential college on the same floor as others in your academic program, meaning that from the start of your college experience, you'll have built-in study partners and friends.

Fact: On average, undergraduate students who live on campus do better academically and are more likely to graduate than students who live off campus.

asu.edu/livingoncampus

Note: Housing for upper-division and graduate students is not based on academic programs, and is limited on each campus and not guaranteed.

Research and training

As a student at ASU, you can play an important role working alongside professors on meaningful research projects.

research.asu.edu | issc.asu.edu

Course equivalency search

The transfer process is a simple transition from your U.S. community college to ASU. Visit tcg.asu.edu to match courses you have already taken with an equivalent course at ASU.

MyPath2ASU®

This admission program creates a seamless transfer experience to ASU after earning credits or an associate degree from a U.S. community college or university.

ASU Prep Digital

You can take a single online course or enroll full time in a diploma-granting program through ASU Prep Digital, an accredited online high school that offers both high school and university credit.

➔ Indicates an accelerated 4+1 degree program. ASU offers a streamlined path to a master's degree from ASU undergraduate programs, reducing the time it takes to get a master's degree from two years to one year.

✕ Indicates a concurrent degree program. ASU offers high-achieving graduate students the opportunity to complete two distinct but complementary graduate degrees at the same time.

+ A two-year program is for applicants who have completed a four-year undergraduate degree in the same discipline as the graduate program. A 3+ program is for applicants with an undergraduate degree in a discipline different than the graduate program.

Learn your way

As a New American University, ASU offers a world-class academic experience designed for the future-focused learner.

Major choices in majors

Picking an undergraduate major can feel challenging. And when you see that we offer more than 400 programs, you might think we're not making the choice any easier for you. Remember, you have access to the me3® major and career quiz tool, and using it can help jump start your journey. Plus, our admission team is here to help you figure out what to study if you can't decide.

You can also take an exploratory track and learn more about a degree program, without losing time or credit. If you want to fast-track your degree program or pick a minor, ASU offers ways you can customize your academic experience.

Dual majors

Earn two concurrent degrees in the same time it takes to earn one, expanding your knowledge and career options.

Accelerated bachelor's and master's degrees

Expedite your studies with a 2.5- or 3-year path in an accelerated master's program, or earn your bachelor's and master's degrees earlier in a 3+1 or 4+1 program.

Minors and certificates

Become more well-rounded and boost your resume by adding a minor or certificate to your studies.

Semester lengths

Choose a traditional 15-week semester or a more concentrated 7.5-week semester. The course content and credit is the same.

Technology-enhanced learning

Experiment with active learning, adaptive learning and online learning to see which works best for you

Paying for it

ASU offers the New American University scholarship for high-achieving undergraduate students, along with other scholarship opportunities. You may also be able to work on campus. Explore your options.

Career services

ASU's Career Services offers comprehensive resources to ensure that you are career ready, including:

- Access to our career platform, Handshake (asu.joinhandshake.com), which includes more than 40,000 internship and job opportunities.
- Customized workshops and presentations for international students.
- Virtual resources, including resume review and interview preparation.
- Career and internship fairs.
- One-on-one career advising appointments.
- Access to the ASU Mentor Network, a platform for mentorship and informational interviewing.

Take the first step by joining a career interest community.

***Barrett, The Honors College housing and meal costs will be higher due to the additional costs associated with the Barrett residence halls and meal plans. Students enrolled in Barrett, The Honors College will have an additional honors college program fee of $2,000 for the academic year.

+While these costs are not factored in to the financial guarantee, students should still plan for these expenses accordingly.

We look forward to welcoming you to ASU and helping you define your experience.

Connect with an ASU admission representative

Attending a U.S. university can be a major transition. At ASU, you have access to your own personal representative who can help and support you through the entire admission and enrollment experience. Find your representative at asu.edu/findmyrep.

How to apply to ASU

1. Complete the application for admission. asu.edu/globalcitizen
2. Pay the application fee.
3. Send official transcripts, academic records and test scores.
4. Provide evidence of English language proficiency.
