Your guide to fall 2021 enrollment
Steps to apply to Arizona State University

Step 1
Complete an undergraduate admission application.
Submit the ASU admission application or apply with the Common Application or Coalition Application.

asu.edu/apply  |  commonapp.org
coallitionforcollegeaccess.org

Step 2
Self-report your grades or request a transcript.
You can either self-report your grades on your application or request a transcript from your counselor. If you choose to request a transcript, you will finish your admission application faster (less than 20 minutes). If you choose to self-report your grades, you will receive your admission decision sooner.

Step 3
Pay the application fee.
If your financial circumstances qualify you for an application fee waiver, you will answer a series of questions in the application that will automatically qualify you and post to your account. The fee is $70 for nonresidents.

Step 4
Check application status.
Check your application status and any priority tasks you need to complete on My ASU using your ASURITE User ID, which is sent to you after you apply for admission.

How to stay on track

It’s never too soon to start preparing for college. Making good choices now means better academic options later.

Helpful things to know:

- Complete and submit your college applications before the deadlines.
- Plan visits to the colleges on your list so you can envision what your life would be like there.
- Make sure you understand which documents each of the colleges you apply to requires and how to request transcripts, letters of recommendation and other documents from your high school. Be sure to meet with your counselor or advisor to ensure you are on track.
- Finish high school on a good note: stay focused until the very end.
