Your future is worth the investment

Attending college abroad seems like a big investment, and choosing a school that offers top-quality education often means paying top price. At ASU, you don’t have to choose between an outstanding education and an affordable tuition — here you get both!

The New American University Scholarship

ASU offers a competitive merit-based scholarship to international undergraduate students who demonstrate high academic achievement. International undergraduate students who submit all application materials to Admission Services and have their complete applications on file by April 1 will be automatically considered for this award.

Intensive English Program

Through ASU’s Intensive English Program, you will become language proficient and have the opportunity to transition to ASU’s world-renowned degree programs. Being part of the largest intensive English program in the U.S. has many benefits.

- Learn from highly qualified educators.
- Register for an ASU class for credit while enrolled in an advanced-level English class.
- Interact with students from around the world.
- Practice English at weekly social activities and American culture events.
- Receive conditional admission to ASU upon meeting the minimum academic requirements and enrolling in ASU’s Intensive English Program.

ASU-USA Pathways

You will receive support to meet the academic standards required to attend ASU and earn academic credit toward your undergraduate degree. This program allows you to:

- Ease into the American education system by learning with American and other international students in engaging classroom settings.
- Be admitted to a selected ASU business or liberal arts and sciences degree program as a sophomore when you complete our three-term program with a 3.00 or higher GPA.
- Live at ASU’s West campus, where you will be part of a supportive community and enjoy a rich cultural experience.

International Students and Scholars Center

ASU’s ISSC is committed to your success. Serving students from 136 countries, the ISSC is ASU’s service and support headquarters for international students. Here are just a few of the services you will enjoy:

- Special programs such as the Academic Foundations Program, the Coffee and Conversation Hour, and an International Academic Support Center.
- Advising sessions through phone, email, and scheduled or walk-in appointments.
- Guidance on maintaining visa status and assistance with immigration documentation.

Study Abroad Office

ASU’s Study Abroad Office welcomes international exchange students who are interested in studying in the U.S. for a term or an academic year.

- To participate in an exchange program, you must be nominated by your home institution.
- Your home institution must have an exchange agreement with ASU.
- You can enroll in ASU courses and earn credit toward your degree at your home institution.
- The exchange student application and requirements may differ from ASU’s general international admission requirements.

Your roadmap to success

Take a minute to envision what your future might look like. Do you see yourself developing a life-saving vaccine? Or perhaps producing content for a major media outlet? Maybe you dream of starting your own business or performing on stage. Regardless of what your idea of success looks like, going to college in the U.S. will open many opportunities for you. And the university you choose should have the programs that interest you, the campus and community that give you the support you need, and the opportunities that will help you achieve your goals.

Arizona State University could be that place for you. Take the time to learn about the special programs and support services we have available for you, and use this information as a guide to take your next step toward the future you want.

Admission Requirements

Minimum Academic Requirements
- Freshman students must have a 3.00 or higher GPA from their secondary schools (4.00 = "A").
- Transfer students must have a 2.50 or higher GPA from their colleges or universities.

Some ASU programs (such as those in the W. P. Carey School of Business and the A. K. Sulit School of Engineering) may have higher admission requirements, which could include a higher transfer GPA of 3.00 and a minimum ACT or SAT score.

Language Proficiency
Success at ASU begins with a strong comprehension of the English language. Because our rigorous courses are taught in English and move at a fast pace, fluency in the language is necessary. Applicants whose native language is not English must provide evidence of English language proficiency, which can be fulfilled by one of the following:
- Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL)
- International English Language Testing System (IELTS)
- Pearson Test of English (PTE)
- IELTS overall band score of at least 6.5
- TOEFL score of at least 550 (PBT) or 80 (iBT)
- Pearson Test of English (PTE) overall band score of at least 60

Conditional Admission
ASU may offer conditional undergraduate admission to applicants who meet the academic requirements but not the English proficiency requirement. In that case, students may fulfill this requirement by completing the Advanced 2 level of ASU’s Intensive English Program instead of one of the English proficiency options listed above.

How to Apply
1. Complete the application for admission before the deadline.
2. Pay the application fee.
3. Send official transcripts.
5. Submit your financial guarantee.

Average Costs
Tuition and fees: $28,270
Living expenses (room and board, transportation, personal, books and supplies): $15,224
Health insurance: $2,606
Total: $45,560*

*Costs shown reflect the average room and board for all ASU campus locations for the 2016–2017 academic year. To see costs for a specific campus, please visit students.asu.edu/financialaid/coa. Fees may be subject to change.
