Arizona State University's application is open!

Be inspired to live your best life

When choosing where to go to college, you want to know that you’re ready to take the next step in your journey. As an Arizona State University student, you’ll join a vibrant community that will help you explore your passions, develop into a lifelong learner, and create a future you’ve dreamed of. Through quality academics, enrichment opportunities, and support from friends and family, you’ll push your potential and take the next steps in every way you see fit.

Your guide to staying on track for admission

Follow along with this step-by-step checklist of everything you need to know about submitting your application for fall 2022 admission. Hang onto your appointment so you can keep track of your progress.

1. Schedule a one-on-one admission appointment
   - We know you might have questions. You can set up a personalized virtual appointment with your admission counselor. They will help you through your next steps with the content and financial aid processes.

2. Complete an undergraduate admission application
   - You can either self-report your grades on your application or request a transcript from your high school. If you choose to self-report your grades, you will receive your admission decision sooner.
   - Choose to not self-report quicker application process, but takes a little longer for an admission decision. If you choose to request a transcript, you will finish your admission application faster (less than 20 minutes).

3. Submit the ASU admission application or apply with the Common Application or Coalition Application.
   - ASU encourages students to self-report their high school grades and test scores. If you do not self-report, you will receive your admission decision sooner.

4. Choose to request a transcript
   - If your transcript is requested, you will finish your admission application faster (less than 20 minutes).

5. Pay the application fee
   - If your financial circumstances qualify you for an application fee waiver, you will check the appropriate box, and your application fee will automatically be waived and post to your account.

6. Check your application status
   - You can track your application status through Individual Review.

7. Submit your financial aid application
   - Complete an undergraduate admission application.
   - Submit the ASU admission application or apply with the Common Application or Coalition Application.

8. Submit your high school transcript
   - Your high school transcript will be reviewed as part of the admission process.

9. Submit your college transcripts
   - If you are a transfer student, you will need to submit your college transcripts as part of the admission process.

10. Submit your test scores
    - Some programs at ASU have higher admission requirements. Should you select one of these programs, you will be required to submit higher test scores.

11. Submit your SAT or ACT scores
    - Standardized test scores are not required for admission or merit scholarships. ASU will award scholarships based on core competencies and GPA. Use the Scholarship Estimator tool to see how much you could receive through ASU’s Scholarship Estimator tool.

12. Submit evidence of ethnicity and citizenship
    - If you are a resident of Arizona, you will need to submit evidence of ethnicity and citizenship.

13. Submit your financial aid application
    - Complete an undergraduate admission application.
    - Submit the ASU admission application or apply with the Common Application or Coalition Application.
