Your credits
ASU accepts college-level (not remedial) courses in which you have earned a grade of “C” (4.00=“A”) or better from regionally accredited colleges and universities.

Transfer Guide
Take the guesswork out of transferring and find out how your credits apply to your ASU degree. You'll be able to build a course-by-course transfer map with MyPath2ASU™. Track your degree progress, request course evaluations, save course and exam searches, and more.

Degree requirements
The ASU college of your major determines how transfer courses fulfill your degree requirements. You should review the degree requirements of the program into which you intend to transfer through a major map, and talk with an academic advisor about your transfer credits and how they will apply to your degree program. Some ASU majors have higher admission requirements. To find the requirements for your specific program, visit ASU's Degree Search.

Your application process

General admission requirements
A transfer applicant is a student who has attended one or more colleges or universities and has completed 12 or more transferable credits post-high school. Students with 11 or fewer transferable credits are considered incoming first-year students. To transfer to ASU, you must meet one of the following requirements:

Students with 12 or more transferable credits must have a minimum 2.50 cumulative GPA. Transfer students with 12–23 transferable credits must also meet first-year student aptitude requirements.

Students who have earned an associate degree from a regionally accredited higher education institution must have a minimum 2.00 cumulative GPA (residents) or 2.50 cumulative GPA (nonresidents).

Your steps to apply
1. Complete an admission application.
2. Activate your ASURITE User ID.
3. Submit your nonrefundable application fee.
4. Request to have your official transcripts sent to ASU.
